

Introduction

Title: Transparency in Leadership: Beyond the Open-Door Policy

Opening Statement:

Begin with a brief discussion on the importance of transparency and effective communication in leadership and management.

Context Setting:

Introduce the concept of an open-door policy as a common approach to promoting transparency in organizations.

Thesis Statement:

Present the central argument that while an open-door policy is a good start, true transparency in leadership requires a more proactive and comprehensive approach.